

OPPORTUNITIES THROUGH
Washington State University Tri-Cities
Work with Entrepreneurial CEO's and Executive Directors of Non-Profits

INTERNSHIP POSITIONS AVAILABLE FOR PAID and UNPAID

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE STUDENTS ARE NEEDED
FROM THESE DEGREE PROGRAMS: Business Administration, Marketing,
Organizational Strategy, Communications, Engineering, Computer Science

- Students work up to 250 hours to complete a project in human resources, financial management,
- Enroll in a 3-credit course in your major
- Students progress is monitored by Faculty and WSU staff
- Student may be assigned one or more projects for same company
- Student completes weekly progress reports and provides final oral and written presentations to CEO, Board of Directors and Faculty
- Pay rate is hourly based on academic standing

INDUSTRIES THAT HAVE PARTICIPATED:

These projects were located through out Washington State. Semiconductor, agriculture-winery and food production and food processing, manufacturing, retail, software development, service, R&D-energy, medical devices, Homeland Security products; merchandising, construction, municipalities-City of Richland, City of West Richland, City of Pasco, City of Kennewick, hospital and medical services, and not-for-profit agencies-Habitat for Humanity, United Way.

PROJECTS COMPLETED: conducted market research, designed inventory management systems, developed production control systems, performed information technology assessment and development plans, formulated quality assurance programs, performed scientific analyses, provided engineering design and testing, developed commercialization requirement of federal grants and contracts, prepared documentation for IPO, create a human resource plan, prepared a 501 (c) 3 application, agriculture database for field production, develop website, and develop export plans for South America and Asia.

APPLY THROUGH MonsterTRAK
JOB LISTING FOR INTERNSHIP
#102251324

For More Info Contact:
Johan Curtiss, Manager Business LINKS Program
Washington State University Tri-Cities
509.372.7142 (phone) 509.372.7512 (fax)
E-mail: links@tricity.wsu.edu